World AIDS Day Essay Winners Announced

Pocatello - The planning group for Pocatello World AIDS day announced the winners for their essay contest. Recognized are three high school students from Century High School. First place went to Tiffany Chandler for "Love of Children". The second and third place awards were to Kristen Taki and Jordan Craney respectively for essays on Ryan White and Stigma and AIDS.

Appreciation is expressed to Ms Helen Keezer, a teacher at Century, for her support of this event. These students will receive a monetary award and their essays will be featured at this year's World AIDS Day Memorial on Thursday, November 30, 2006, 7:00 pm at the First Congregational United Church of Christ, 309 N. Garfield Avenue in Pocatello.

For more information regarding the celebration, contact JoAnne Fletcher at 239-5230.
