Southeastern District Health Department to Host Annual Memorial Event

Southeastern District Hospice Program to Plant Memorial Garden

Pocatello - The Southeastern District Hospice Program will host its 6th Annual Hospice Memorial Garden Service on Wednesday, May 23, 2007. The event will be held at the Southeastern District Health Department offices located at 1901 Alvin Ricken Drive in Pocatello, Idaho. Everyone in the community is invited to attend and bring an assortment of annual flowers (i.e. marigolds, petunias, pansies, etc.) to plant in the flowerbeds from 5:15 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

At 6:00 p.m., the program will commence with Rod Johnson, hospice social worker, conducting. Hospice Chaplain, Amy Gantt-Lamb, will offer a prayer and inspirational message. In addition, musical entertainment will be provided. A barbeque dinner sponsored by Maag Prescription & Medical Supply will be served following the program.

Those wishing to order granite plaques to be mounted on the memorial wall in honor of their deceased loved ones, should contact Walker Monument Company at (208) 232-3818.

Anyone wishing to make donations for the garden planting, or desiring additional information about the event should contact Denise Dopita at (208) 239-5240.
